Georgiana joined Manchester Square Partners as Partnership Manager in January 2015. Previously, she had been with The Zygos Partnership, as Executive Assistant to the Managing Partner and COO.

Georgiana spent her early career at Russell Reynolds Associates as an Executive Assistant in the Consumer sector before moving to Sydney for a year. On her return to the UK, she completed her Business degree at Kingston University (London) and relocated to Dorset to take up the position of Programme Consultant and Office Manager for Inside Knowledge, a specialist training provider for secondary schools around the UK. In 2010, Georgiana returned to London to take up a role within the Financial Services Practice as an Executive Assistant at Russell Reynolds Associates.

She was educated at North Foreland Lodge and Bryanston, obtained her diploma from St James's Secretarial School and gained a First BA (Hons) in Business from Kingston University.
