Liz joined Manchester Square Partners as Partnership Manager at its beginnings in 2005.

Previously Liz spent eight years from 1997 at the Executive Search firm Whitehead Mann (formerly GKR and now Korn Ferry). She worked within the firm's Financial Services practice, latterly as PA to the practice Chairman.

Liz's first career was spent with the Security Service, joining in 1986. She worked there for ten years in various support roles completing posts in London, the Caribbean and in Northern Ireland.

Liz's strength is engaging with others, spending much of her spare time in a voluntary capacity. She spent eight years as a counsellor for Cruse Bereavement Care and in 2007 gained a Certificate in Humanistic Counselling Skills at the London Gestalt Centre. This interest has also taken Liz overseas. In 2005 she took a sabbatical to Africa working in Kenya and Tanzania, and a year previously a short spell teaching in Nepal. Liz is also a keen runner.

Most importantly, Liz enjoys being a mother to her 7 year old daughter, Erin.
